Miklos Klaar runs a movie studio in the Communist Bloc. He is preparing a film, combining documentary footage with scenes he has shot on a sound stage, to make it appear U.S. troops have committed an atrocity. The Impossible Missions Force -- minus Dan Briggs, who is absent this episode -- runs a typically complicated operation.

116. "Fakeout" (Season 1, Episode 12) The first season of Mission: Impossible is its most varied and inventive, and it's my favorite, largely because it's fun to follow along as the series tries to figure itself out. Alas, this leads to the occasional, unimpressive hour like "Fakeout," a simplistic extradition con that works very ...
