Pen spinning is a form of object manipulation that involves the deft manipulation of a writing instrument with one's hands. Although it is often considered a form of self-entertainment (usually in a school or office setting), multinational competitions and meetings are sometimes held. It is sometimes classified as a form of contact juggling; however, some tricks do leave contact with the body.

A fountain pen is a nib pen that, unlike its predecessor, the dip pen, contains an internal reservoir of liquid ink. The pen draws ink from the reservoir through a feed to the nib and deposits it on paper via a combination of gravity and capillary action. Filling the reservoir with ink may be achieved manually, via the use of a Pasteur pipette (eyedropper) or syringe, or via an internal filling ...

NOTE: For all media enquiries, please email media@ellusionist.com. Pyro Pen is the third instalment in the viral Pyro series. After it's brother set the internet ablaze in 2014, by turning people's wrists into flamethrowers, we've been working hard for 4 years to develop a thinner, sleeker and more fiery Pyro than ever before.
