Southern African Literatures Longman Literature

Naturally, racial friction is often depicted in South African literature of all languages. But there is a marked difference between how white writing depicts black characters and how some black authors depict whites: one emphasises that people are not what the stereotype claims, the other argue that the stereotype is substantiated.

Among the countless stories attached to Anansi, one explains how he became known as the owner of all stories in the world. It's so popular that it has been studied and republished many times, including as children's books, like the Caldecott Medal-winning A Story a Story by Gail E. Haley, which follows Akan oral tradition by beginning the tale with: "We do not really mean, we do not really ...
